

ELEVATING CONDOMINIUM MANAGEMENT

ACMO

Association of Condominium
Managers of Ontario

WE ARE ACMO

The Association of Condominium Managers of Ontario (ACMO) is the only professional industry association in Ontario dedicated to supporting, educating, and promoting condominium managers and management firms.

In 1977, a group of enlightened managers recognized the need to professionalize the relatively new field of condominium management and ACMO was born.

Since then, ACMO has led the way in organizing and building the industry through the development of condominium management education and best practices, professional designations, and ethical standards.

We are the expert voice of condominium management representing a growing community of professionals dedicated to pursuing a higher standard of excellence in condominium management.

YOUR COMMUNITY OF CONDOMINIUM MANAGEMENT PROFESSIONALS

ACMO has cultivated a vibrant community for condominium professionals that offers connection, knowledge, and support along with a level of education and training that goes beyond the minimum licensing requirements. As a member of our community you benefit from:

Connecting For Success. You Are Not Alone.

Condominium management can be a challenging profession, and there will be times when you may not know where to turn for expertise and advice. As part of our professional community, you are never alone and have access to resources and support. Through ACMO's educational and networking events, online forums, and access to our private membership directory, you can reach out and connect with your peers, industry experts, and suppliers to get the knowledge and help you need to succeed.

Our Higher Standards. Your Competitive Advantage.

ACMO's industry-leading Registered Condominium Manager (RCM®) designation and ACMO 2000 Certification represent the gold standard of condominium management expertise and integrity going well beyond basic regulatory licensing requirements.

Those who voluntarily achieve our designations abide by a robust code of ethics and enjoy a distinct advantage in a competitive industry and are highly sought after.

Our designations are widely promoted and our professionals are listed on ACMO's online registries so owners can easily check that they have the best management for their condominium.

Convenient Continuing Education. Be Your Best and Stay Ahead of the Rest.

ACMO is committed to educational excellence and is a leader in delivering education and professional development opportunities to the condominium management industry. We offer in-person educational seminars and webinars throughout the year so condominium managers can expand and update their knowledge to deliver the best possible service to their clients.

Keeping You Current. Your Information Clearinghouse.

ACMO understands that you are a busy condominium professional with precious free time to stay abreast of industry developments, so we work hard to fill that gap by providing all of the latest industry news, trends, regulatory updates, and best practices. Through our industry-leading CM Magazine delivered to your home four times a year, downloadable resources on our comprehensive website, exclusive member portal, archived webinars, social media, supplier directory, and weekly e-newsletter, we give you 24/7 access to a wealth of condominium management information.

Advocating For Our Profession. Serving Your Interests & Promoting Value.

For more than 40 years ACMO has been the driving force in building, promoting, and advancing the interests of the condominium management profession. Through ongoing communication and consultations with all levels of government we actively champion the needs and interests of our members and help shape the industry's regulatory framework.

Throughout the year, ACMO conducts ongoing ad campaigns to promote the value of our profession, our designations, and our members to influence the decision-makers in our industry and attract more people to the profession. In addition, ACMO recognizes the very best in our industry through our annual ACMO Condominium Management Awards.

Paying it Forward. Helping Advance Our Profession.

We encourage our members to pass along their knowledge and expertise by volunteering on ACMO committees, writing content for our magazines and publications, and helping to guide and mentor those new to the industry. It is a great way for our members to raise their profile while paying it forward.
