KATHERINE
Dear Ms. Gow and Mr. MacDonald: PAUL

Thank you for your email about electronic voting and virtual meetings for condos. I appreciate the time you took to write and welcome the opportunity to respond.

Please know that as the Minister of Public and Business Service Delivery, it is my priority to ensure we continue to improve the ways we serve Ontarians, and that includes providing more online options and easier access to services.

On August 24, 2022, the Ontario government approved regulatory amendments under the Business Corporations Act, Corporations Act, Co-operative Corporations Act, Condominium Act, 1998 (condo act) and the Not-for-Profit Corporations Act, 2010. The amendments now permit, until September 30, 2023, corporations governed under these statutes to call and hold meetings virtually, as applicable — notwithstanding certain restrictions or requirements. If you have questions about the extension of the effective period, please contact oncondo@ontario.ca.

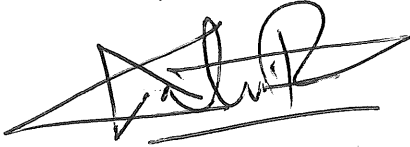

My ministry continues to explore comprehensive permanent changes under the condo act that better reflect the digital age and allow for broader participation. I value your comments about the permanent adoption of virtual meetings and electronic notices. Your feedback will be taken into consideration, as appropriate.

From time to time, my ministry asks for input on potential changes to Ontario's condo laws through Ontario's Regulatory Registry. As you have done in the past, you may wish to participate in future public consultations on the condo act by submitting your suggestions.

You may also register to get updates about Ontario's condo laws — including information about potential changes and notices on public consultations related to the condo act — at eepurl.com/b90aJT.

Once again, Ms. Gow and Mr. MacDonald, thank you for writing. I hope this information has been helpful to you. Please accept my best wishes.

Sincerely,
