

Newsworthy

Inset: The Honourable Tracy MacCharles, Minister of Government and Consumer Services.

Ministry Updates

Licensing Update

On December 16, 2016 a draft of the proposed regulations for the Condominium Management Services Act, 2015 was released for public consideration and comment.

The public was invited to provide input on the new regulations by February 6, 2017. ACMO struck an ad hoc review committee to provide its recommendations on the proposed regulations.

Read the full article on page 13 that outlines ACMO's submission to the Ministry of Government and Consumer Services on behalf of members.

The Condominium Management Services Act, 2015 addresses the licensing of condominium managers and condominium management providers, education requirements, transition and ongoing monitoring, and complaints procedures.

Further updates can be found on our website at <https://www.acmo.org/condo-act-news/>.

New Minister of Government and Consumer Services

In a cabinet shuffle due to the departure of David Oraziotti, Tracy MacCharles has been re-appointed Minister of Government and Consumer Services. Minister MacCharles is already familiar with the changes to the Condominium Act, 1998, as she previously held this position during the early discussions of licensing in 2013–14. She will continue to serve as Minister Responsible for Accessibility.